

Tool

The first management book written specifically for family planning program managers, this award-winning handbook has become a standard text in management training courses around the world.

A practical guide for managers of health and family planning programs, this handbook provides practical information on:

- planning
- coordination
- staffing
- supervision
- training
- management information
- contraceptive logistics
- financial information
- program sustainability

Source URL: http://www.msh.org/resources/family-planning-managers-handbook-basic-skills-and-tools-for-managing-family-planning-0?field_resource_type%5B0%5D=Tool&page=1