

Join us on Wednesday, July 23rd from 6:30pm-8:30pm
at our satellite session at the 20th International AIDS Conference in Melbourne, Australia

Tap the potential: The role of the private sector in stepping up the pace of supply of HIV/AIDS commodities

What is the private sector's role in helping meet global HIV/AIDS care and treatment targets? How can the public and private sectors best engage with each other to maximize impact?

This satellite session will explore the increasing role that the private sector is playing in delivering public health commodities and health services. We will draw speakers from among key stakeholders, including commodity suppliers, freight and logistics services and government partners.

Date and Time: Wednesday, July 23, 2014 from 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Location: Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre, Rooms 111 and 112

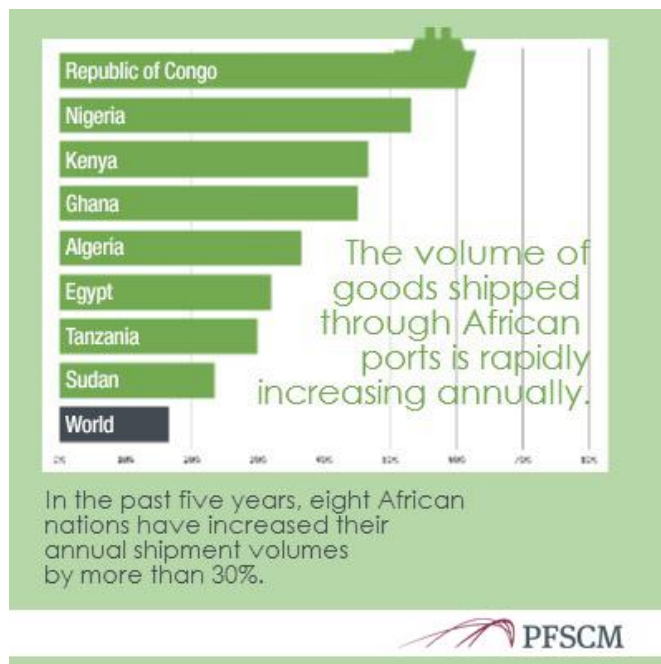

Hosted by: PFSCM (Partnership for Supply Chain Management), John Snow, Inc. (JSI), Management Sciences for Health (MSH) and Imperial Health Sciences (IHS)

Co-moderators:

- Gordon Comstock, Director of Global Supply Chain, PFSCM
- Dr. Iain Barton, Managing Director, IHS

Panelists:

- Arvind Kanda, Mylan Inc.
- Professor Paul Lalvani, Empower School of Health
- Amit Shah, Freight in Time
- Dr. Owen Mugurungi, Zimbabwe Ministry of Health & Child Welfare

For more information, go to: <http://pag.aids2014.org/session.aspx?s=1934>

You can also follow our conference participation on Facebook at:
<http://www.facebook.com/pages/SCMS/131439183636416>